COMPANY PRESENTATION

Adria Bandiere, founded in 1973, is a company that creates flags of different types, shapes and colors, with solid experience behind it. Today the company is highly professional and has developed proprietary know-how and introduced methods and best practices that place it among the world's leading producers of the highest quality flags.

It has a well-developed commercial network, initially established for the tourism sector and subsequently expanded to the nautical, sports, advertising and institutional sectors.

It is present with its offer across the entire global market. It stands out for its reliability, precision and skillful ability in crafting its products.

Consolidated artisan expertise and the use of the latest technologies allow the manufacturing of different fabrics and the creation of custom, original, and extremely high-quality products. Among them: national and institutional flags, gonfalons, standards, banners, advertising flags and much more.

The guarantee of a constantly monitored production process is ensured by compliance with UNI EN ISO 9001:2015 standards.

Kind regards,

Adria Bandiere s.r.l.
