

From the Heart of Marche to the World: The Story of Faber Surface Care, Guardian of Surface Beauty

1986 - THE BEGINNING

Our company was founded in 1986 in Fabriano, Italy. Since the beginning, we have established a central role in the chemical field for the production of industrial and professional products for surface treatment dedicated to natural stone, marble, granite, porcelain, ceramic, agglomerates, bricks, and concrete.

FABER IN THE PRODUCTION LINE

We cater directly to the producers creating active cooperating relationships for the development of specific solutions for surface treatment, applied at the end of the production phase. We take pride in our custom approach in the development of solutions that answer the specific needs of the client. We walk alongside the material from production to its daily use.

FABER AT THE JOB SITE

From architects to restoration companies, to facility management our solutions can satisfy all your projects needs from maintenance to protection, to restoration. Facilitated by the constant and direct communication between customer and technical advisor. We can proudly say that our solutions have been used and are being used in some of the most prestigious international projects. And for it we also have to thank the amazing relationships we have built with our customers and distributors.

FABER AT HOME

From years of experience in the industrial and professional fields we created a line of high-quality products for daily surface maintenance. high-effective formulas that are easy to use and that do not require professional equipment. A line of products that answers the growing need for high-quality products, dedicated to end-users who want takes care of their surface firsthand.

FABER TODAY

We believe in quality, teamwork, and the willingness to learn and improve. Every day we grow thanks to our hard work with our partners and distributors who are part of our family. From our Italian roots, we have expanded through the years creating partnerships of exclusive distribution that make our products largely available around the world.

- In 2001 in Singapore FABERCA PTE LTD came to life. The main distribution channel for our products in the Southeast Asia market.
- In 2016 in the UAE FABERME GENERAL TRADING LLC came to life. The main distribution channel for our products in the GCC market.
- In 2023 in Spain FABER IBERIA came to life. The main distribution channel for our products in the Iberian Peninsula

All our exclusive distribution channels provide their partners with technical and sales support, thanks to a professional and competent staff able to identify the most suitable solution to every need, and a warehouse full of our solutions ready to go.

Our mission? Let's Grow Together.
