

COMPANY PROFILE

Brother Filtration is your reliable partner in engineering process since founded in 2010. Practical technology, exquisite manufacturing process, genuine customer service is our most value bring to all of the world.

Brother Filtration is a leading manufacturer of liquid filtration products. We always focus on the high flow filter design and manufacture, targeting to solve your different troubles and meet your variable requirements.

High pressure, High temperature, Large flow rate and Long service life are what we have been balancing better user experience and cost efficiency for you. Not only supplying products to you, but also making a suitable and high performance filtration solutions.

We are at service for many industries, from sea water desalination plant, power generation plant, food and beverage industry, drinking water treatment to industrial water treatment. More research, more improvement and more new technology, we are seeking to provide you better products and solutions.

Let's work together, building a green and beautiful world.

